NON FINITES

In this unit you will learn to distinguish between non-finite and finite verbs. You will also practise the appropriate use of the three different types of non-finites: the 'ing' form, the-to infinitive form and 'ed' form. The use of non-finites in formal writing helps us achieve compactness and economy by avoiding repetition.

A.6. Given below is an extract from the story 'The Iron Man and The Space Being'. Complete the story using suitable non-finite verbs. You may choose words from the box given below.

worry change peer hit frighten blaze

One day there came some strange news. Everybody was talking about it. Round eyes, busy mouths, .............................. voices - everybody was talking about it.
One of the stars of the night sky had begun .................................. This star had always been a very tiny star, of no importance at all. It had shone up there for billions and trillions and zillions of years in the Constellation of Orion. In all its time this tiny star had never changed in any way.

Now suddenly, it began to get bigger. Astronomers, .......................... through their telescopes, noticed it first. They watched it with ............. frowns.

The tiny star was definitely getting bigger. And not just bigger. But bigger and bigger and Bigger. Each night it was BIGGER.

Bigger than the Dog-star, the large, coloured twinkler at the heel of the Hunter Orion.

Bigger than Jupiter, the great ......................... planet. Everybody could see it clearly, night after night, as it grew and Grew and GREW. They stared up with frightened faces.

Till at last it hung there in the sky over the world, blazing down, the size of the moon, a deep gloomy red. And now there could be only one explanation. The star was getting bigger because it was getting nearer. And nearer and Nearer and, NEARER.

It was rushing towards the world.

Faster than a bullet.

Faster than any rocket.

Faster even than a meteorite.

And if it hit the world at that speed, the whole world would simply be blasted to bits in the twinkling of an eye. It would be like an express train .......................... a bowl of goldfish.

No wonder the people stared up with frightened faces. No wonder the astronomers watched it through their telescopes with worried frowns.
A.7. While reading a magazine advertising home products, Sakshi Aggarwal came across an advertisement for a stain remover called Dr. Clean. She decided to buy the product but it caused more harm than good. Complete the letter of complaint she writes to the company using appropriate words.

Dear Sir

I wish __________ to your notice the ridiculous product you have recently launched. I saw a TV advertisement for Dr. Clean and its ability ____________ ‘99 top stains’. I bought the product and ____________ the least, I regret the money I spent on it.

You claim that your Dr Clean stain removal keeps clothes in wearable condition for a long time and thus helps reduce clothing costs. However, let me tell you what happened when I tried ____________ a stain left by tea from my shirt.

__________ the stain remover on the stain does seem to make the stain fainter temporarily. But here is the problem: a little after you have sprayed Dr. Clean on the fabric, the area around the stain seems to melt away. Soon, there is no stain. In fact, there is a hole where the stain was!

Surely this is NOT what you meant when you advertised The stain will no longer be visible to the naked eye?

Yours truly

B. Verb + ing as a Non-Finite.

B.1 Present Participle

Example  A rolling stone gathers no moss.

In this sentence 'rolling' describes 'stone'. We can use words like 'round' 'smooth' and so on to describe a stone. These words are all adjectives. Hence, we can see that 'rolling' functions like an adjective in this sentence. It is in the form of verb + ing (roll + ing). Such verbs in their 'ing' form functioning like adjectives in sentences are called Present Participles. (The 'ing' forms of verbs used with auxiliaries like am, is, are, was, were, be and been as in 'I am writing a letter.' are also called present participles.)

Characteristics of Present Participle

1. They are all verbs that end in 'ing'.
2. They function like adjectives in sentences.
3. They describe an unfinished action.
4. They can be used with all the tenses. (The time of action is shown by the finite verbs in the sentences.)
B.2 Underline the present participle and circle the noun it describes in the following sentences as shown in the example above.

a) The policeman saw a thief escaping on a motorbike.

b) Hearing a loud sound, the students rushed out of the classroom.

c) I can hear the school choir practicing in the auditorium.

d) The player was happy seeing that his opponent was growing tired.

B.3 Fill in the blanks using the correct from of the words given in the box below.

When the teacher caught the boy ________ in the examination, he stood there ________ and ________. ________, the loud admonition of the teacher, the headmaster rushed in. The boy started to cry ________ that he would be expelled from the school. ________ the situation very quickly, the headmaster asked the boy to follow him to his room.

fear, cheat, hear, assess, quiver, tremble

B.4 The Gerund

Examples: (a) Walking is good for your health.

(b) I like going on long walks.

(c) Partings are always painful.

(d) He is confident of passing the examination.

In the above sentences the underlined words are called "Gerunds".

Let us take sentence (a)

Walking is good for your health.
Walking can be replaced with 'apple', 'exercise', 'a balanced diet' etc.

What part of speech do these expressions belong to? They are all nouns.

So in the sentence

Walking is good for your health.

We can ask ‘What is good for your health?’

The answer is ‘walking’. Thus ‘walking’ here functions like a noun. At the same time it is a verb (walk + ing). Such verbs are called Gerunds. They are also called Verbal Nouns. Though the present participle and the gerund have the same form (both are verb + ing forms), we should remember that present participles function like adjectives and gerunds function like nouns.

Characteristics of the Gerund.

1. Gerunds are non-finite verbs that function like nouns.
2. They have the verb + ing form (singing, dancing, writing, working, meeting, painting, lightning etc.)
3. They are used to make certain compound nouns - walking stick, frying pan, writing table, sleeping bag, drinking water etc.

The distinction between 'participles' and 'gerunds' is not always clear-cut. For this reason, we generally avoid the terms 'participle' and 'gerund' and use the general term 'verb + ing' as non-finites.

B. 5 Complete the sentences using 'ing' form of the verbs from the box.

| apply | buy | use | meet |

1. The doctor advised Neelam to avoid ________ ghee as a cooking medium.

2. I have had to put off _________ a scooter for my son until he completes his college studies.

4. By the time we finished _______ the house, the children had become hungry.

5. She went around _______ all the tenants in the apartment house, canvassing support for her cleanliness campaign.

6. I am afraid the doctor is busy now. Would you mind _______ a few minutes?

C  Infinitives as Non-Finites

C.1 Example:

a) I advised him to see a doctor.

b) They hope to buy a house of their own.

c) I saw him do it.

d) He made me wait for a long time.

In the above sentences, the underlined words are called infinitives. In sentences (a) and (b) the infinitive has 'to' before it. They are called 'to' infinitives. 'To' in such a use is called an infinitival particle. In sentences (c) and (d) the infinitive does not have a 'to' before it. Such infinitives are called 'Bare' Infinitives. Bare infinitives are used after auxiliaries: shall, should, will, would, may, might, do, did, can, could, must, need and dare. After some Principal or Main Verbs like bid, watch, see, let, make, help and hear the bare infinitive is also used.
Characteristics of the Infinitive.

1. The infinitive is the simplest form of the verb. It is exactly the same as the 'base' form of the verb (eat, see, drink, meet, jump, hear, play, run, come and so on).

2. The infinitive is a non-finite verb and in a sentence it comes with a finite verb.

3. Underline the infinitive and circle the main verb in the following sentences:
   a) I bade him come in.
   b) To find fault with others is an unhealthy habit.

   d) Our duty obviously is to respect the Constitution.

E. The Past Participle.

E.1 Example: The wind swept away the fallen leaves.

In this sentence, ‘fallen’ describes ‘leaves’ which is a noun. Thus, the past participle, like the present participle, acts an adjective.

b) Trucks, loaded with rice, left for the flood affected area.

Important characteristics of the Past Participle.

1. They usually end with - ed, -d, -t, or -en.
2. They describe a completed action.
3. They, like the Present Participle, act as adjectives.
4. They can be used with all the tenses. The time of action is shown by the finite verbs (entered, left, started, did not know, totters, will register)
Look at the following sentences:

- Having delivered the luggage, the messenger prepared to leave.
- Having been elected to the Lok Sabha, he left for Delhi.

The underlined verbs are not simple Past Participles but Perfect Participles. The Perfect Participle represents an action as having been completed some time in the past.

E.2 Combine each of the following pairs of sentences, using the correct form of the verbs. The first one has been done for you as an example:

5 The police chased the smuggler. The smuggler hid in a thicket.

E.3 Match the news items with the headlines. Write the correct headline above each news item.

1. Business Firms Involved in Pooja Celebrations

4. Schoolboy Kidnapped
