- (b) A cat reached a fox. The cat, who thought the fox was a clever animal, greeted him and said, "How are you doing?" The proud fox looked at the cat and said, "Poor! Rat hunter! How dare you ask me? How much information do you even have? How many arts do you have? The cat embarrassedly said I only have one art. The fox asked, "What art?" and the cat said, "When the dogs follow me, I can jump on the tree and save my life." The fox laughed and said, just only this? However, I have 100 arts. I feel sorry for you, and I want to teach you how to deal with dogs.
- (c) Malik Jamshid said, "Oh damsel, I will take you out of here. Afterwards, he picked up Parizad on his compound and drove off. When he reached the gate of the city, he remembered that he had forgotten the flowers. Parizad said, "I am the daughter of the fairy king. When I laugh, it sheds flowers from my laughter, and if I cry, it sheds pearl from my tears. Malik Jamshid was delighted and thankful to God for excellence. Then he brought Parizad home, asked for a judge, and he married with her.

Answer No.11 Translation the following passage into Urdu or Hindi or English 6 Marks

Once upon a time, a shepherd boy lived in a village. Every morning, he took the sheep of the rural people from village to the green and prosperous hills and nearby the village so that the sheep would eat fresh grass. In addition, he was alone almost all day, and one day he was bored. It was Friday and he had to be with the sheep again. From the top of the hill, his eyes fell on the people of the village who had gathered side by side in the middle of village. Suddenly, he thought something and decided to do something interesting to have a little fun. He shouted: "The wolf came, the wolf came, and the wolf came.
